About The Kandy House

The ancestral home of one of Kandy's most influential aristocratic families, Ratwatte Walauwa was built by Chief Minister Ratwatte Adigar in 1804. It is located on the eastern hills of the town on a spice estate.

This beautifully restored manor house still retains the atmosphere of a private country mansion of the British Raj while providing seclusion and serenity in a lovely countryside setting amidst a spice estate of rolling hills on the edge of Kandy. The luxury boutique hotel has nine suites set around a magnificent central courtyard.

The Kandy House Super Deluxe Room

Rooms

The bedrooms are the finest in Kandy, with four-poster beds, soft white linen, concrete-washed bathrooms and antique bathtubs. Nine luxury suites are filled with Dutch antique furniture, each with a colonial character brought to life with contemporary silks and cottons. Four poster beds are provided within each room and floor to ceiling shutter windows overlook the gardens. The modern en suite bathrooms feature showers and a Victorian bathtub.

The Kandy House Pioneer Room

Super Deluxe Rooms - Indian Red Admiral Cornelian and The Pioneer

Three main Gallery Rooms with en suite bathrooms that circle the atrium courtyard...

Ultra Deluxe Rooms - Black Rajah Garden Suite, Peacock Royal and Red Spot Duke Rooms

To the front and sides of the house are 3 Verandah Suites that are very spacious and boast their own verandah overlooking the front pepper estate.

Fine Dining

Guests can dine in style in the wonderful original dining room or less formally on the verandah overlooking the Kandyan hills. The daily menu is dominated with fresh local produce but the chef takes inspiration from around the world. The hotel offers 24-hour room service.

The Kandy House Upstairs Courtyard

Facilities

The main house is on two stories with a central atrium courtyard, typical of many colonial homes to circulate the air. There is a sweeping Jackwood staircase and the central sitting room opens on to the verandah where the sun streams in during the early evenings.

There is a stunning swimming pool landscaped into the surrounding paddy fields. The estate is a wonderful place to relax and unwind with beautiful landscaped gardens around the master house containing roses, avocados, Jackwood, papaya and Sri Lankan oranges. The nearby spice gardens can also be explored and admired. Yoga and massage are available on request.

Excursions

The ancient capital city of Kandy is one of the prettiest towns in Asia. The focal point is the sacred Temple Of The Buddha's Tooth that contains one of Buddhism's most sacred relics.

Adjacent to the temple is the very pretty Kandy Lake, built by the last King Of Kandy with an island harem for his wives! Behind the temple is an assorted collection of buildings that made up the Royal Palace such as the Audience Hall. The Old Town area of Kandy consists of a maze of streets with very early British colonial period and traditional Kandyan style buildings. The entire area has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Only 30 minutes away from Kandy House are the Peradeniya Royal Botanical Gardens, which house one of the world's great tropical plant and flower collections including a beautiful Orchid House. An hour away is the Pinnawela Elephant Orphanage, with 70 abandoned and orphaned elephants - the largest herd in the world!
